What is Going On in Official Circles—An Important Bill—The Indian Affairs Committee Has Made a Decision.

Washington, Dec. 24.—The sub-committee of the house committee on Indian affairs has been considering an appropriation bill for several days and will report it soon after the holidays. There is a proposition to make a reduction in the expense of the eastern schools. Representative Wilson, of Washington, a member of the sub-committee preparing the bill, says that there is a general feeling that the Indians can be better educated on their reservations in the west.

There is no longer a frontier," said Wilson, "railroads, telegraphs and telephones have obliterated it." The committee has also been considering what to do with improvements made by churches for contracts schools and it has been determined to appropriate $60,000 to buy a number of them and to begin acquiring men at about 20 per cent each year.

A RAILROAD LANDS APPROVAL.
The secretary of the interior to-day approved the lists of land selected as an indemnity by the Northern Pacific railroad, embracing about 200,000 acres in Minnesota, for a grant of 302,000 acres in Montana.

OFFICIAL FACTS AS TO THE ARMENIAN OUTRAGE.

The Turkish legation to-day received the following official telegram: "Certain newspapers have announced the execution of thirty-six Armenians at Erzerum. This information is not correct, the facts being as follows: 'Out of forty-six Armenians under arrest at Erzerum, thirty-six were liberated, five have been condemned to death and the remaining five have been sentenced to ten years hard labor. Several others were also condemned to death, but they are in flight. The condemned men were convicted of murder and rape, but legal for-mities concerning these sentences have not yet been fulfilled.'"

EDISON LOST HIS CASE.

A decision was to-day rendered in the supreme court of the District of Columbia in a suit which has been pending nearly two years, brought by the American Graphophone company against the Columbia Phonograph company, the real defendant being Thomas A. Edison and the Edison Phonograph works. The court finds for the American Graphophone company on every point and issues a decree of injunction against the defendants and orders an accounting by an auditor.

WALL STREET DIES HARD.

The first steps have been taken in the district supreme court to test the constitutionality of the income tax law.
Jeremiah Wilson, as counsel for John G.
Moore, of New York banking company, in the equity branch of the supreme court of the District of Columbia, has applied for an order restraining John S. Miller, commissioner of internal revenue from assessing and collecting a tax upon his income.

FATHER OF HIS COUNTRY.

Practical steps are being taken for the erection of a monument at Washington, Va., to mark the birthplace of Washington. The work is being done by Col. A.
M. Wilson, U. S. A., under the direction of Secretary Gresham. The old homestead is on the Potomac river, about seventy miles below this city and about four miles by water from the town of Colonial Beach, Va. The ruins of a chimney are all that remain of the house in which the father of his country was born, and so far it bears no mark of its sacred character.

BIG CLAIMS.

A general omnibus bill for the relief of the various states, territories and cities of the country as final discharge of existing claims against the government was introduced in the house on Saturday by Mr. Stone, of Kentucky, (by request).
The amounts in the bill are: New York City, $2,095,634; California, $3,951,915; Oregon, $336,162; Nevada, $404,000. The claims of New York, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Virginia, South Carolina and the city of Baltimore for advances and expenditures made in the war of 1812 are to be resituted and paid. Provision is also made for the payment of $3,296,658, being balances due sundry claimants in Oregon and Washington arising out of the Indian war of 1855-56 and for the payment of expenses incurred by the national guard of Nebraska to repel a threatened invasion of the Sioux in 1891.

A Great Snow Fall.

Sisson, Cal., Dec.—The snow fall here during the past five days measures ninety-six inches, and traffic on the Oregon division of the Southern Pacific railroad is completely blocked. The heavy fall of snow is causing great damage. The big Methodist church building collapsed under the weight of snow.

THE DEADLY CROSSING

Gets in Its Work on a Portion of a New Jersey Family Returning from Church Yesterday.

Cape May, N. J., Dec. 24.—At Lucka-hoe, twenty-five miles north of this place, on the South Jersey railroad last night, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, Miss Emma Jones and another young girl, who were returning from church, drove upon the track just as a train came along. The engine struck the carriage and instantly killed Mrs. Lewis and severely injured Miss Jones and another girl. Mr. Lewis escaped without injury. The girls saved themselves by jumping.

American Poultry Association.

Kansas City, Dec. 24.—At the regular annual meeting of the American Poultry association held here officers were elected as follows: President, James Forsythe, of Oswego, N. Y.; vice president, M. L.
Andrews, of Sedalia, Mo.; secretary, Theodore Hewes, of Trenton, Mo.; executive committee, F. B. Glover, of Kansas City, Adam Thompson, of Amity, Mo., and Mrs. F. A. Creal, of Carrollton, Mo.

Sad Christmas for Them.

Salem, N. J., Dec. 24.—A mad dog ran through the streets of this city Friday night and carried terror and suffering with him. Fourteen persons were bitten.
Four horses and ten dogs also felt the effects of his teeth. Seven of the injured persons have already left for New York to undergo treatment in the Pasteur institute. Among the injured are Professor A. Storey, Councilman Henry F. Sticker, E. S. Carter, Jacob Seuer, Dr. J. C. Robinson.

STILL DRAGS ON.

The War in the East Shows No Signs of Termination—The Japanese Parliament Meets.

Tokio, Dec. 24.—The Japanese parliament was opened here to-day. A speech from the throne briefly referred to the victories achieved by the Japanese troops in every engagement and says that they are steadily pressing forward into the enemies' territory, adding that it is especially satisfactory to note that in spite of the cold and hardships the forces are more than ever distinguishing themselves by valor. The relations of Japan with the neutral powers are more friendly than ever.

In conclusion the speech says: "Having been placed in such a glorious situation we wish more than ever to PROMOTE THE CIVILIZATION of the country and enjoy the peace of home and abroad; and by securing harmony between this government and people to assist in the furtherance of the imperial wishes." The government is still skeptical in regard to China's peace overtures and points out that the north-south date has been made by China. While China now professes to wish peace, news has reached the government of Japan that China is negotiating for the purchase of the entire squadron of the Chilean navy and that the agents of Colonel von Hannakin in Europe are trying to enlist a number of German officers for service in the Chinese army and navy.

THE JAPANESE ARMY MOVING.

London.—A dispatch from Shanghai states that the third Japanese army is reported to have landed west of Chee Foo, and to have captured Lai Chow, a seaport town in the province of Chan Lung, on the south shore of the Gulf of Pechili.

NOT YET SELECTED.

The American Commissioner to Investigate the Armenian Outbreak Has Not Been Named.

Constantinople, Dec. 24.—It is stated here that the appointment of an American delegate to accompany the Armenian commission and to make an independent investigation is still unsettled.
Minister Terrell held a long audience with the sultan last evening and the matter will be considered at a council of the ministers to-day. In view of the severity of the winter the commission is not likely to be able to visit the mountain districts of Saanen.

SCORES OF LIVES

Were Lost During the Recent Gale in and Around Great Britain.

London, Dec. 24.—The telegraph lines in the northern part of Great Britain are still down and the full amount of damage done by the storm is not known. It is estimated, however, that from fifty to 100 persons lost their lives during the gale.
The weather chart to-day shows that new disturbances are coming from the Atlantic.

FURTHER FEARFUL DETAILS.

The steamer Oswald of Whitby has been wrecked off the Mull of Galloway.
All on board were lost. Lloyd's to-day reports seventy-nine wrecks and casualties during the storm, many accompanied by the loss of life.

OTHER SERIOUS DAMAGE.

Amsterdam.—Storm news from various parts of the coast show the damage to have been much greater than was at first supposed. The North sea beach has, in every direction, been washed away from fourteen to twenty feet and many fishing vessels drawn up on the beach have been destroyed. The German bark, Caroline, has been wrecked off the coast. Ten of her crew were drowned.

A New Colorado Railroad.

Denver, Dec. 24.—Receiver Trumbull has fully decided to build a railroad from Pueblo to Trinidad (ninety-two miles) to fill the gap in the Gulf system and the dirt will begin to fly soon after New Year.

IN CASE OF WAR

Between Guatemala and Mexico, a Large Volunteer Force will Join the Regulars—Trouble on the Border.

City of Mexico, Dec. 24.—Advisors from the state of Puebla, Mexico, are to the effect that a large volunteer force has been organized in the state of Guerrero for service in Guatemala in case war is declared with that country by Mexico.
At the port of Acapulco, the government made preparations for the quick handling of troops and their transportation by water to Guatemala will be easily accomplished should there be any necessity for such a movement.

WARLIKE ON THE BORDER.

Orizaba, Mex.—A courier from the Guatemalan border reports that owing to the disturbed condition of affairs on the frontier, farms and ranches are being abandoned and people are seeking places of safety from the depredations and crimes constantly being committed by bandits and outlaws following in the wake of the soldiers. The Guatemalan forces are being strengthened all along the line and the Indians and other natives of the country are being pressed into military service. The volunteer troops in this state, as well as in Chiapas, are equipped and ready to march to the frontier as soon as war is declared.

On a Mortgage.

Denver, Dec. 24.—F. Henningson took possession of the produce commission house of Kaufman & Murray to-day on a mortgage for $6,000. The house did a large business.

THE DEBS CASE.

The Sentences Separated So that An Appeal Could be Taken in One—To Jail January 8.

Chicago, Dec. 24.—Judge Woods to-day decided that the jail sentence of Debs and his six associates in the Santa Fe case should begin January 8. On motion of Attorney Gregory for the defense, the Santa Fe and government cases, on which the sentences were cumulative, were separated and the sentence deferred until the Santa Fe sentence could be received.
An appeal will be taken in the government case.

New York, Dec. 24.—Samuel C. Seelye, who on Monday last pleaded guilty to the charge of abstracting the funds and altering the books of the National Shoe & Leather bank was to-day sentenced to eight years in the King's county penitentiary by Judge Benedict in the circuit court. The total amount of defalcation was $354,000.

TROUBLE AT VEGAS.

A Sheriff Posse Out After a Desperado —They Want More Fire-arms.

At noon a telegram came from Chief Justice Smith requesting the governor to order fire-arms in the possession of the Las Vegas militia company turned over to the sheriff that he might be prepared to preserve order. The governor complied with the request. From this it appears that matters are serious. At 11 a.
m. the New Mexican wired for particulars, but none had been received up to 3:45 p.m.

LATER.

Special to the New Mexican.

Las Vegas, Dec. 24.—Pablo Herrera, convicted of murder in the third degree for the killing of Florencio Sandoval in 1891 in an election row and who escaped from jail pending his sentence, was shot and killed in old town to-day by a sheriff's posse. Since his escape he had lived on his ranch about nine miles from town and had frequently been in town at night.
To-day he came in and was soliciting presents for a Christmas tree to be had in his neighborhood. Chief Justice Smith heard of his presence and issued a warrant for him dead or alive. A posse of thirteen was collected and started to arrest him. He resisted and was killed, four balls penetrating his body.

New Mexican's Abroad.

John Burton, of Chama, arrived in Denver this morning and is quite enthusiastic over the Ute removal bill. He says Senator Newman, who went to Washington, D. C., about three months ago to lobby for the passage of the removal bill, will be in Denver to spend Christmas.
Then it is expected to learn something about the exact feeling regarding the removal among government officials.

M. W. Mills, of Springer, is at the Windsor. Mr. Mills has lived upon the Maxwell grant for years, and says that there are now about 7,500 people living within its limits. "The greatest impedment in settling up that region," said he, "is the alien law, which applies to all territories of the United States, and forbids foreigners from owning more than 5,000 acres of land in one tract. If the territory becomes a state this objection is removed, and capital can be had for building a dam in the canon of the Cimarron river and irrigating 50,000 acres of land that can be thrown open to settlement."

—Denver Times.

Duke City Vagaries.

It's difficult to discover just what the Albuquerque Democrat is driving at in the appended extract, from a long editorial in Sunday's paper, but since it is so extraordinary for that paper to speak of Santa Fe and her institutions in any but a snappy, critical manner, we take this, covert darts and all, as an indication that light is breaking in upon the Democrat, and reproduce it in order that the surface admissions of Santa Fe's refusing influences shall have wider circulation than they possibly could in the circumscribed limit within which revolves the Albuquerque Democrat:

"The frankness that characterizes the columns of the Morning Democrat, (the statement is not made in a boastful way), has spread, wonderful to relate, to cultur-ed Santa Fe, the Athens of New Mexico.
Will not the gentleman who directs the editorial policy of the New Mexican confess his purpose to acknowledge his personal indebtedness to the fratricidal territory after reading this paper? With beautiful magnanimity he has admitted that his 'single eye and massive brain' are products of a long residence in Santa Fe. What enviable commentary on the resources of this territory. The brain which moulds the popular thought and action of New Mexico and which originated the society department of the New Mexican are home-made. There's a mine richer than Ophir or any prospect in Cochiti!"

SILVA WAS BALD.

Oreno Owes His Liberty to the Fact that He Has Hair on His Head.

Deputy United States Marshal Loomis, of New Mexico, was compelled to turn loose the Mexican he arrested Wednesday for various desperate crimes committed in New Mexico. He was not Vicente Silva at all, but Prabillo Orono, the individual he claimed himself to be. He was the very image of Silva, however, and had been in several places where Silva had been seen at the very times the desperado was reported to be there. Marshal Loomis had been following Orono for some time under the impression that he was on the trail of Silva, and when he finally ran him to earth in Pueblo he was sure he had the right man. He answered the description of Silva in every way, but when brought into United States Commissioner Beaumont's office yesterday for identification, and took off his hat, Loomis immediately said he was not Silva, and he was discharged. The peculiar feature by which the difference was so clearly established was the fact that Silva had a large circular spot on the crown of his head which was entirely devoid of hair—as bald as though he had been scalped—while Orono's head was completely covered with a luxuriant growth of hair. To be sure, the description of Silva stated that he had a very long beard, and Orono had very little, but that cut no figure, as beards are easily shaved off. But the large bald spot could not be counterfeited and Loomis was reluctantly compelled to release the prisoner he has worked so long and arduously to capture.

There is a story told to the effect that the real Silva left Pueblo several weeks ago for Rouse in company with a woman with whom he became infatuated while in this city.—Pueblo Chieftain.

TO-DAY'S WIRINGS.

D. McFlanigan, Edward Sullivan and John Costello, Chicago sewer employees were injured by an explosion of gas today. Sullivan was fatally injured, the others will recover.
Woolstader & company, retail clothiers at Milwaukee, doing business under the name of "The Hub" failed to-day with $120,000 liabilities. The Chapman Carriage & Sleigh company also assigned to-day at the same place.

Noah Foster made a full confession today in the Taylorville, Ill., jail that he murdered Arthur D. Binnion, near Pana, Ill., a week ago, in a dispute as to who should make the camp fire.
A special to the New York World from ment.

Catarrh

In Its Worst Form
Life Almost a Burden
A Glorious Change Due Solely to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:
"Gentlemen:—From a grateful heart I write what your grand medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla, has done for me. Five bottles cured me of catarrh in its worst form. I think it was only a matter of time, when it would have ended in Bronchial Consumption.

I can scarcely realize wherein a few months ago I was almost a burden, sick and discouraged, now I am Well and Happy, gaining flesh and a new being. And all owing to Hood's Sarsaparilla. I will never be without it. Yours gratefully, MRS. CLARK KING, Geneva, Ohio.
